HAYES FOR NEXT PRESIDENT.

The Boston Journal of Saturday morning seems very confident that Hayes is elected, and certainly the despatches from Senator Morrill and Z. Chandler would indicate a Republican triumph. Senator Patterson received a despatch for Gov. Chamberlin of South Carolina friends of the academy are confident saving "South Carolina is safe for Republicans." Gov. Kellogg of Louisana advantages which Derby Academy afalso claims the State. Keogh, Chairman fords to those wishing to pursue the of Republican Committee of North Carelina does not concede the State to the Democrats. The Journal places Florida and North Carolina in the doubtful list, so if we receive a majority in either state Hayes will be elected, while Tilden must carry both states to elect him. The electoral vote, according to the Journal, stands sure for Hayes, 181; sure for Tilden, 174; doubtful, Florida 4. North Carolina 10.

The Temperance Reform Club will hold their next meeting at the vestry of the new church, on Wednesday evening pext. We learn that T. J. Pratt will be present to entertain the audience with a lecture. Let all who are interested in temperance be present.

J. Guild sends us two limbs from an apple tree in his orchard, covered with new blossoms and leaves. This must be a centennial tree, and reminds us of the scripture record, when the "mountains and hills shall break forth before you into singing, and all the trees of the field shall clap their hands."

BARTON LANDING. School closes this week. D. Stafford will move into his new

The articles taken were jewelry, gloves, shirts, walwere single shooters, and marked "Eclipse." The money drawer was forced open, but nothing of value was found in it. The burglars left as much as they took in some of the show cases, and after carrying considerable confectionery to the place of exit, left it there, evidently having more stuff than they could get away with. Entrance was gained by breaking out a light of glass in a window on the east side, next to Ira Harvey's store, and forcing off an inside

There was intense interest in the turns as received at this place; the closeness of the contest making the result all the more exciting. The telegraph office was besieged until a late hour Tuesday night, but there was hardly enough to give either side assurance; vet the Democrats were the most jubilant. Wednesday morning the despatches fav ored Hayes, but later in the day news came that the National Republican Committee and the New York papers conceded Tilden's election, when the Democrats were again jubilant and prepared to burn powder, and do various other things. At six o'clock, however, a despatch came that Hayes was elected by one majority. The Republicans took heart again, and the Democrats were correspondingly depressed. Thursday morning another despatch was received, that the Republicans claim five of the six doubtful states-Nevada only to be heard from. Although this was a slender thread to hold upon, a good many were supported by it, and faces grew short, and not a few believed that Hayes was elected President .- Caledonian.
